

'SAMYATI' 'AT HOME' by High School & Plus Two Sections

A day when the dedication and hard work of both teachers and students bore fruit — 'SAMYATI' filled the hall with happiness, satisfaction, and a sense of achievement.

The event commenced with a soulful prayer, followed by a warm welcome speech by Ruhi Elia Joseph. The audience was then graced with the presence of Ms. Nalini Chandran, the Founder of Hari Sri Vidya Nidhi School.

The formal beginning was marked by 'Rangapooja', invoking divine blessings for the day. The school choir set the tone with a heartfelt song 'Lukka Chuppi' dedicated to mothers, followed by a rendition of the viral hit 'Minnalvala', touching every heart.

A powerful mime performance followed — a silent story that spoke volumes. With the message, "Let your dreams define your destiny, not your gender," the students conveyed the deep meaning through an expressive performance, without uttering a single word.

The Class XI boys captivated the audience with a contemporary dance, while the Malayalam skit portraying the journey of a man's life left a lasting impression. The Class XI girls mesmerized everyone with a fabulous dance performance.

The High School Section began with a beautifully staged English skit, interwoven with melodious songs by the choir — 'Kanmanipoo' and 'Marivillin Gopuranga' — making the performance even more enchanting.

The dance performance showcased the energy and rhythm of the 'At Home' programme.

This year's 'Samyati' was indeed a breathtaking and captivating programme.

The Malayalam Skit: 'Maari'

The students of the UP Section truly shone on August 30th with their outstanding performance. The ceremony was graced with a prayer and then with a Welcome Speech by Andrea Fredy of class VII. This was followed by the Welcome Dance to invoke blessings. Up next was an informative Malayalam Skit depicting the causes of disasters and their after effects. On deck was the Group Song trained by Geetha Miss and Kiran Sir of the Music department. The students sang their hearts out with the songs 'Kannondnu Chollanu' and 'Love You Zindagi'. This was followed by an English Poetry in Motion. The poem was - Flag of Peace by Julius Myron Alexander. When actions spoke louder than words. The History of India was beautifully showcased without any dialogues. A Dance was also performed expressing a tribute to women but also violence against women. Let's Zoom Out! : An English Skit about time travelling and the vast imagination of three friends was showcased in a fun and entertaining manner. Last but not the least was a Lord Shiva Dance trained by the Dance department. The Vote of Thanks was expressed by Andrea Fredy.
